Van Osdall Soon To Publish Results Of Research Work

Thomas C. Van Osdall, instructor of chemistry at SAC, will soon publish the results of his research into the development of low temperature crystallization and measurement of fatty acids found in soya, cotton seed and palm oils, in the "Journal of Chemistry" of the American Chemical Society.

The problem assigned to Van Osdall by the W. C. Hardesty Company of Los Angeles was to improve the existing methods for measuring the amount of oelic, acid part of olive oil and linoleic which is part of vitamic E, complex and archidonic acids in these common oils. In addition to improving the method of measurement, research was conducted into a method of low temperature crystallization at -30 degrees centigrade and -40 degree centigrade where by the amount of palmitic and stearic acids, which are used to harden chocolate and rubber, could be determined.

Previous to this study, Van Osdall was employed by the Rubber Reserve Corporation through the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company in a program of research for the improvement of the resiliency of synthetic rubber in high altitudes where it was subjected to abnormally low temperatures. The first usages of this process in aircraft found the rubber becoming brittle in low temperatures above 20,000 feet.

Thomas C. Van Osdall, Chemistry instructor at SAC, will soon publish results of research work in the Journal of Chemistry of the American Chemical Society.

Informal Service Club Initiations End Pledges Survive Three Day Trials

Informal initiations for all men's and women's service clubs of Santa Ana College were held last week during the three day period set aside for "Hell Week."

This week the pledges of the clubs are recovering from the ordeals in which they sustained last Wednesday to Friday. The Bachelors held a formal initiation last Saturday night while the other two men's service clubs, the Los Gauchos and Buccaneers held theirs on Wednesday evening.

In last week's initiation the paddles, used by all the men's service clubs, were inflicted on all new pledges. The Bachelors, who pledged nine members, showed a taste of refinement in their initiating proceedings and all pledges wore top hats, sport coats, ties, white gloves and pants rolled up to their knees.

Los Gauchos initiated 16 pledges and compelled them to wear gunny sacks for shirts and Mexican sombreros. Eleven pledges were initiated by the Buccaneers and they were adorned in sailor hats, sweat shirts with slave written across the back and an onion with a wooden sword strung around their necks.

Pledges Refrained from Talking

The women's service clubs, which are the Las Meninas, Piloteers, Spinsters and Las Gitanas, new pledges had to refrain from talking to men while they were on the campus and if they were caught doing so they were penalized in a manner prescribed by the clubs.

The Piloteers compelled their pledges to wear long cotton skirts to their ankles, mismatched shoes, sun bonnets and carry a basket for their books. Pledges in the Spinsters had to wear green rim glasses, and dress in a different style each day of the initiations. Also the pledges had to have 12 men sign their names on a raw egg which they carried. Las Gitanas pledges wore gypsy costumes and carried signs representing the club. Pledges with tooth brushes strung around their necks and uncombed hair were being initiated into the Las Meninas.

IR Conference To Be At Oxy

Southwest Regional Conference of the International Relations Club will be held on the Occidental College campus in Eagle Rock Friday and Saturday, November 11th and 12th, according to Bill Fledderjohann, president of the Santa Ana IR club.

Twelve members of the IR club will represent SAC at the conference. A panel will be formed to discuss the topic "Is the Iron Curtain Rusting." The host to this conference last year was Santa Ana College.

This was the main topic of discussion at the IR club meeting at SAC last Tuesday, October 25th. The next SAC meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, November 8th. A meeting place has not been determined.

Faculty Party To Be In Cafeteria

A party for the faculty and non-certificated employees of Santa Ana college will be held tonight, at six o'clock at the College Cafeteria, it was announced today, by the Dean of Women, Agness Todd Miller.

Faculty members in charge of the program are: Mrs. Loyd L. Tolman, general chairman; Mrs. Neevil W. Helm, chairman of entertainment; Mrs. Orville M. Knutsen, tables and decorations; Mrs. J. Russell Bruff, chairman of serving committee.

Family and secretarial party will contain one hundred and six people, seventy-eight adults, and twenty-eight children.

Dr. and Mrs. Daniel C. McNaughton and new faculty members will be in the receiving line.

Editorial: Interest Clubs

What? Service Clubs are not important on our campus? No. No more than are interest clubs, scholastic societies, and other independent organizations!

Since the beginning of the current semester, our thoughts have turned to service clubs. Consequently, they have overshadowed the interest clubs here at Santa Ana College and support for these smaller organizations has been rather unresponsive. The larger service clubs have always been conceded the edge, for example in attendance.

But the ground for existence of a club, such as our interest clubs, approaches a higher level by far in the momentous scholastic phase of college life than do those for our service clubs.

To most of us interested in a specific subject, there is a club on campus to fit that subject. Many "invaluable and pleasing activities will be on the Interest club agenda, but advantages won't end there. Students of similar interests will join you and your friends in informal chats, and who knows? You may learn something. Your theoretical contact will be supplemented by a certain number of practical ideas.

There stands before us a challenge to keep our intellectual interests on a level worthy of the commendation of our critics.

Introducing

Carmen Perez. The name itself almost makes you see her. The mass of darkly curling hair, the warm coloring, and the deep eyes. She is always smiling interested in everything, yet quietly, not vivaciously so. Of what more suitable club could she be president than the gypsy band.

She would like to travel, someday to see Europe and the rest of the world. First though, she wants to finish her course in business administration here and to continue at San Jose State College. Several trips into Mexico have especially interested her in the customs of the Latin peoples and she says that she would like to visit Spain most of all.

In addition to being president of Las Gitanas, Carmen is now serving as a member of the W. A. A. cabinet. Tennis is the sport she likes most to participate in and she loves to watch football and ice hockey. About ice hockey she says, "It's the speed of the players that is so fascinating. The way they must combine their skills and the co-ordination they must have to avoid accidents."

While seriously interested in her studies and in planning for her future, Carmen is never too busy to smile a "Hello" to everyone in sight.

Richard McCammon, president of the honorable society of Buccaneers, is largely responsible for the lovely odor of onions and garlic which surrounded the entire flagpole area and incidentally, all members of his club during "Hell Week".

Richard was born in Iowa about 21 years ago and came to California in the year 1940--when he was twelve, that is. Since then he has been quartermaster second class in the Navy for three and a half years most of which was spent in Guam, as well as deciding to become another of those students of business administration here at SAC. Right now, Richard is more interested in business law than anything else except, perhaps horse racing and the snow conditions at Big Bear during the Christmas holidays. We asked him if he liked to ski very much. "You might say," and he grinned, "that I'm not very adept at that sport. I think maybe I'm best at watching football."

Sekeris Writes On "Hell Week"

As the result of a surprise assignment in Miss Lota Blythe's day session creative writing class, Frank Sekeris wrote the following poem. His assignment, "Gather pledge week impressions during this class period and upon your return write your observations on the subject." Frank did.

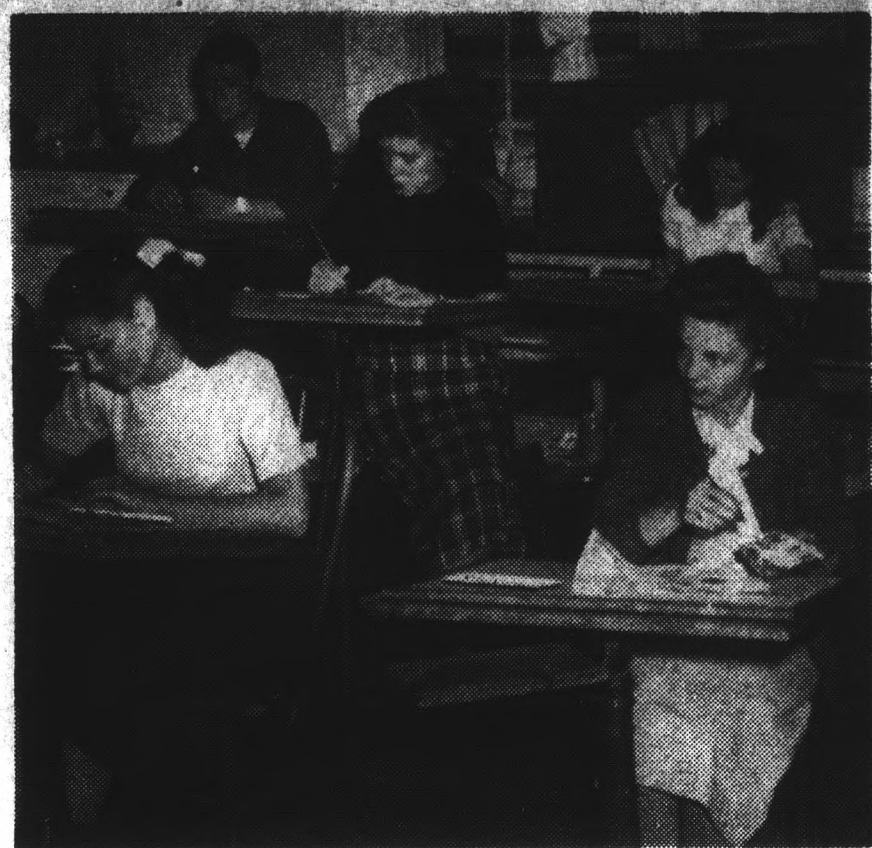

From sociology out I walked
But then my heart stood still
The scene that faced me while
I gawked
Forced me take a pill
For in the crannies everywhere
And in the shadows blue Lurked costumes made with useless care
With people in them, too
I listened to one strange poor soul
As humbled, she knelt down
Before a tyrant and a ghoul Whose face was screwed in frown
"I know that I am only dust - -"
She sobbed with wetted cheek
And even though she hadn't cussed
Her thoughts were all but meek
While in the distance--could it be?
It sounded like a rocket
But 'twas a master viciously
Bruising his slave's back pocket.
I saw another martyr bend
His tail a flaming glow
He had my pity to the end
On this the Pledge Day Show

Author Lectures To SAC Writing Class

Allan Vaughn Elston, local author whose best book is "The Sheriff of San Miguel," was recently a guest speaker of the SAC evening division creative writing class instructed by Miss Lota Blythe, who also teaches creative writing and English during the day sessions. Elston gave a talk on the problems confronting the writer of today.

Mrs. Robert Christiansen and Mrs. A. M. Fickes, verse and article writers, have also been guests of the class which offers three college credits and meets every Thursday evening from 6:30 until 9:30. Among topics covered in the one semester course are magazine and novel writing.

"Blythe Pensters", a literary club devised from the more talented members of the class, meets once a month to discuss the latest novels and their own material.

SAC Art Department Offers Students Variety of Experience

(Ed. Note—Following is the first of a series of articles written by Jane Lindemuth, El Don feature writer, to acquaint students with the various departments of the college.)

Located in building Q, the Art Department at SAC is under the direction of Miss Frances Egge, a graduate of Pomona College who was awarded her Master's Degree at the University of Southern California. Miss Egge also studied at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and the University of Hawaii as well as traveling widely in Europe and Mexico.

Offers Varied Courses

The Art Department offers courses in commercial art, interior decoration, drawing and painting, art structure, art appreciation, and the history of art. All art courses offered are accepted by the University of California.

The class in commercial art, which is doing advertising and illustration and is willing to work on publicity for clubs if they will write their own copy.

The art structure class is studying color, design, and spacing. According to Miss Egge, color can make a person feel cold, gloomy, or happy and gay. Arrangement of lines and selection of shapes also can produce these moods.

The interior decoration students are making their own textbooks with notes and illustrations of the requirements of a well-decorated home, and on the application of these principles of design.

The purposes and problems of art are studied by the art appreciation and history class while the drawing and painting class most of the time with imaginative and still life pictures.

Peggy Humphrey, '50 art student, won a scholarship to the Academy of Arts in Long Beach last summer.

Tavern Tattlers See Movies Of Europe

Movies taken by Thomas H. Glenn, advisor, during his stay in Europe this summer, provided the main part of the Tavern Tattler meeting held Wednesday, October 26, at 7:30 p. m. in the Little Theater. New members of Tavern Tattlers were introduced and initiation was planned for the next meeting.

Mrs. Eleanor Northcross, former SAC Dean of Women, addressed the group on the origination of Tavern Tattlers. Plans for the revision of the club's constitution were also made.

After the movies, a short business meeting took place, under the direction of Shirley Lantz, president. Plans for the initiation of the new members were made, and it was decided a scrapbook of the doings of Tavern Tattlers should be kept.

Alumni Trail

By PAT JOHNSON

Holding the office of associate editor of The Wildcat, Chico State College's weekly paper, is Dick Reisch, '48 graduate of SAC. Reisch entered Chico State College this fall as a junior, and worked himself up to the position of associate editor within the first quarter of the semester.

Reisch told us that the Wildcat does not rob him of his sleep as El Don used to do, but added that the Wildcat certainly takes a pretty piece out of his studies. We doubt very much if Reisch has to worry about his grades, though.

While enrolled at Santa Ana College, Reisch held the positions of managing editor, sports editor, copy editor, feature editor and reporter on El Don. He was also a member of Beta Phi Gamma, journalism fraternity.

Jim Newcomb, ex-SAC miler, now attending USC, came in first at the annual USC-California cross-country run over hill and dale at Berkeley recently. After finishing the race, Newcomb calmly picked up his camera and snapped pictures of the staggering pursuers as they came across the finish line.

Many of last year's freshmen have decided to complete their education elsewhere, with JoAnn Cole at Berkeley, Gordon Pond attending Pepperdine, Joyce Seifkin now at Fullerton, Roselle Drake at Riverside, and Forrest Pond attending an art school in Los Angeles. Dick Warner, the 6 ft. 6 inch basketball star of SAC last semester, is at present playing football for Humboldt State College, way up in Northern California.

Pledges Accepted By Men's Clubs

Members and pledges of the Brotherhood of Bachelors met in front of the new student union, Saturday night, October 22nd, for the purpose of initiation. Transportation to and from the place of initiation was provided by former SAC student and member of the Bachelors, Douglas 'Windy' Windolph.

Pledges who were initiated include Asa Herron, Allen Neidringhaus, Roy Berry, Chuck Berquet, Hal Caldwell, Pat Bobson, Jim Goode, and Keith Brown.

BUCCANEERS

Informal initiation of the Buccaneers was held last Wednesday evening, October 26th, 7:30 p. m., in Jack Fischer park. This initiation was held on the regular meeting night. The next meeting will be held November 9th. Place of the meeting has not been determined. The boys in levis and sailor hats who were initiated are Jim Harrison, John Holford, Pat Kelly, Milton Lewis, Knut Nelson, Burton Pickett, Phil Reilly, Jerry Rozar, Robert Sampica, and Noel Wright.

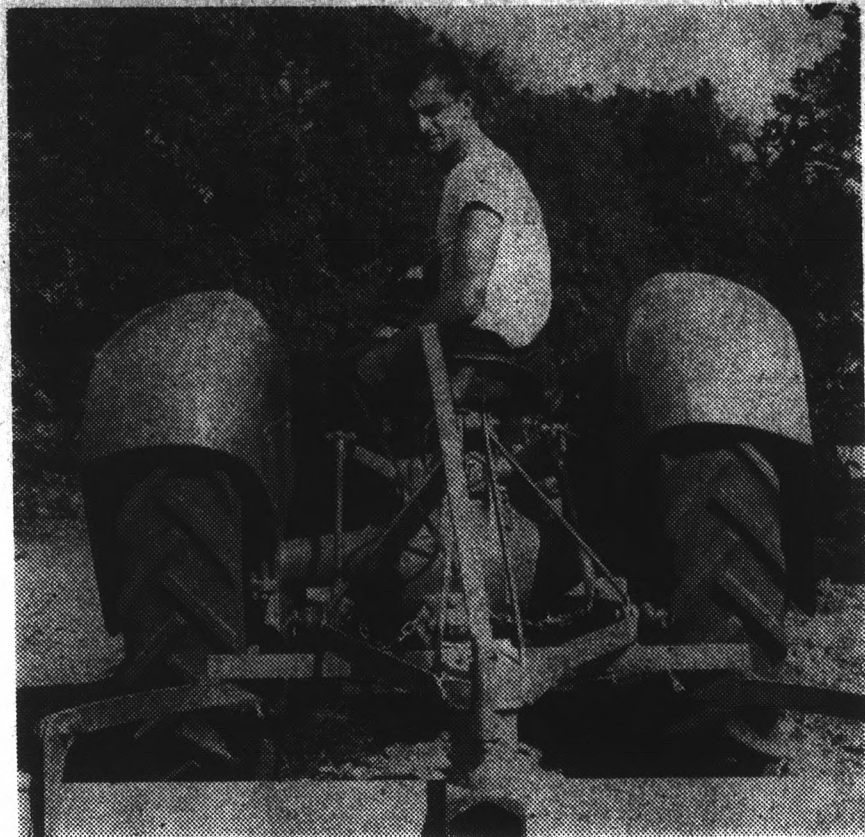

LOS GAUCHOS

Sixteen Los Gaucho pledges were initiated by members of the club last Wednesday night, October 26th, after meeting at the corner of 4th and Main streets.

State Tests To Be Given At SAC

"Tests for prospective diesel engine instructors will be given in the shop buildings of SAC tomorrow, Saturday, October 29th by the University of California," said Harry E. des Granges, SAC auto mechanics instructor, today.

A manipulative test, judged by two local judges Jack Horn and Ray Yeran, will be given to men in the mechanical industry field from all parts of Southern California. These applicants must have had a minimum of seven years experience in the field.

Santa Ana College was chosen as the examination place since its auto mechanics department is recognized as one of the most complete of its kind in the southland, stated des Granges.

Versatile Don Acts Entertain At Half

Spanish dancing by SAC co-eds, the Don band marching, and a group of acrobats performing were part of the activities presented during half time at the Don-Riverside game last Friday night.

The Donas, in peasant skirts and blouses under the guidance of Miss Isabelle Rellstab, women's P.E. instructor at SAC worked out some dances on the eld to music provided by a string trio.

The Don band, under the direction of newly appointed drum major Charles Marden, formed on the Riverside and then counter-marched to the Santa Ana side where the majorettes did a dance routine to the tune of "Deep Purple."

Don Musil, aided by his two young pupils from the YMCA, performed with a routine of tumbles and flips.

Vikes-Dons In Crucial Grid Battle

The Long Beach Vikings will arrive here tomorrow to take on our Santa Ana Dons in what may prove to be the toughest non-league battle the Dons have faced to date. The Vikes boast a light, but fast charging line that downed Fullerton 40-7, and an inexperienced, but hard playing, and speedy backfield.

Dons Undefeated

The Vikings have been defeated three times, while the Dons are still undefeated. These defeats of the Vikes, have only been by small scores, while their victories have been written down in big numbers. The most outstanding of these victories was the Fullerton game.

Dons Are Tied

Santa Ana has a strong team, being undefeated six starts, but having this spoiled by the Pasadena game, which came out in a 13-13 deadlock. The Dons will be all fired up for this game, and will be all out for a win to keep their slate clean.

Teams Meet

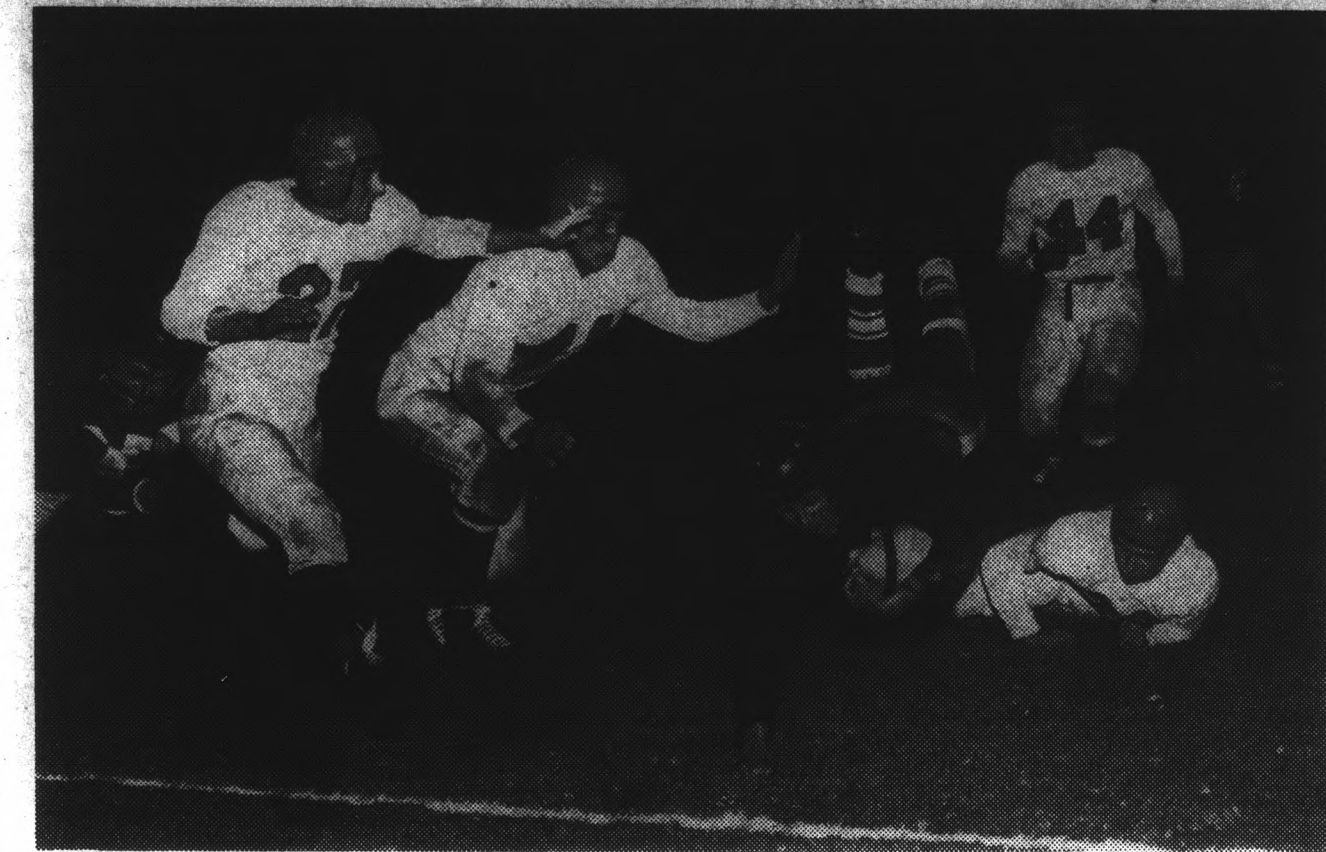

Though the game will not count in the Dons league standing, it could chalk up one loss on the card, and won't do the Dons any good. The Dons will be almost at full strength, and Coach Bill Cook will start all of his regulars. The Santa Ana lineup will include Valdez le, Adams lt, Zelinka lg, Jankovich c, Spector rg, C. Leonard rt, B. Leonard re. In the backfield for the Dons, will be Willsey q, Carmichael lh, Lillywhite rh, and Kluewer or Reed at f.

The lineup for the Long Beach Vikings will start Peterson at re, Carter rt, Sundell rg, Marks c, Zimmerman lg, D. Zimmerman lt, and Terry le. The Long Beach backfield will start Uglesich at q, Millington rh, Tompkins lh, and Rich at fb will fill out the team.

Kickoff time for this game will be at 8 p. m., but all the remaining Don games will be started at 7:30 p. m.

Hard hitting fullback, Bob Reid was named Don of the Week from recent results obtained from the popular voting of Santa Ana College students at Vandermast's Clothing Store.

SAC Keeps Grid Slate Clean By Dumping Conference Rivals

Third Victory

Over 5500 spectators watched the Dons record their third consecutive conference victory of the season over the Tigers. Playing a slow, but impressive game Santa Ana was never in to much difficulty and compiled 11 first downs to the Tigers six.

Riverside Held

Getting off to a slow start in the first stanza, the Dons found themselves staving off a potential Riverside score on their one foot line. Putting up an outstanding goal line stand, the Dons held the Tigers from scoring on four successive downs. With five minutes left to play in the first quarter Ray Willsey started tossing the pigskin to Don receivers. Six plays later Willsey, on the Tigers 31 yd. stripe, flipped a long pass to Carmichael, who avoided two Tiger would be tacklers to score standing up.

Santa Ana Leads

Neither the Dons or the Tigers could make any progress in the second quarter and play slowed down to a standstill and Santa Ana led 7-0 as the half ended. Coach Cook put in his first team to start off the third stanza and as a result of this the Dons marched 50 yards in nine plays to score sending Carmichael over from the five yard line, on an end around.

Dons Score Again

Again in the last of the third quarter, the Dons scored, going 60 yards in nine plays, with Bob Reid plunging over from the four yard stripe. Lee Searcie booted his third extra point of the evening to maintain a perfect average. In the fourth quarter the Tigers gained their only touchdown of the contest on a desperation play in which Harmon tossed a 26 yard pass to Weischedel for six points.

Dons Win

In the previous weeks game with Chaffey, the Dons had to come from behind to defeat the Panthers in a hard fought skirmish. The Panthers led 7-6 going into the second quarter, but from then on the Dons mighty strength prevailed. Al Carmichael and Carlos Lillywhite each scored two touchdowns, while Willsey recorded one, and John White contributed another

SPORT SHOTS

By PAUL TEKUS

With only the Pasadena 13-13 tie to mar their slate, the Santa Ana Dons have come along through a tough schedule without a single defeat. Cal Poly, Santa Monica, Orange Coast, Chaffey, and Riverside have all felt the wrath of the Don juggernaut, and all have bowed down in defeat to it.

Santa Ana still has three big hurdles to go over to finish the league circuit without mishap, and the league schools that are still on the Don schedule, will be ready to give the Dons as much trouble as they possibly can. Mt. San Antonio, San Bernardino, and our arch rival Fullerton are the schools left to play.

Long Beach, a non league school will be the next foe to meet the powerful Dons, and that may prove to be a real tussle. The Vikings have quite a formidable record to match with the Dons.

Cross Country

Coach John Ward announced this week that his cross country track team will get their first taste of competition Saturday, when they travel to Mt. San Antonio, for the Southern California Junior College cross country invitational. Coach Ward now has twelve men out for cross country, and plans to run them all.

The men in his class are: John Allen, Fred Brown, Jerry Crawford, Paul Duncan, Russell Ekstrom, Edward Hebel, Donald Marks, Frank Mendez, Robert Miles, Calvin Nickey, Harry Quackenbush, and Leonard Thornton. These men will represent Santa Ana College in the meet.
